PROPOSED REMOVAL OF THE NEW TAMMANY GOLD MINE TO THIS CITY—ONLY TEN MILLIONS ASKED TO START IT—THE CITY TAXES TO BE LEVIED BY THE TAMMANY RING—RUSH OF NEW BILLS IN THE ASSEMBLY.

ALBANY, Jan. 17 .- Mr. G. D. Lord introduced bill in the Assembly to-day authorizing the City of New-York to raise money for the construction of a new State Capitol. The city, under this act, would be at liberty to issue bonds to the amount of $10,000,000; to repay the State and City of Albany all moneys expended on the new Capitel building here, and to construct a new build ing under the direction of the Board of Public Works, said building to be located somewhere between Tenth-st. and the Harlem River.

to the Senate. They nowhere estimate the amount nec essary to complete the edifice, though they make casual mention of the discovery of quicksand mingled with the clay upon which the building is erected, which unfortunate circumstance has rendered necessary "a much greater expenditure than had been contemplated." The probable cost of the work, though especially called for by a resolution of the Senate, has not seemed to the Commissioners a matter of sufficient importance to receive their attention. The architect remarks that "the design has been and has received unqualified praise from many of the leading architects in both countries."

Sonator Tweed has laid before the Senate his bill to release the Legislature from any further consideration of New-York City Tax Levies. The Mayor, Controller, and Commissioners of Parks and Public Works, are contituted a Commission with power to distribute the pubbe funds among the different departments, and the tax to be levied is limited to two per cent of the valuation. The proposed legislation does not prevent the valuation being increased from time to time. It was supposed that such a law would have been passed last Winter, but for some reason or other it has been referred.

lution amending the State Constitution so that hereafter no meneys shall be paid by the State to any religious corporation, sectarian school, or institution of learning, under the control of a religious denomination, and prohibiting any city or town from making such appropria-tions. The resolution lies on the table under the rule. There is no chance at present of putting an end to the wholesale largesses which religious denominations, and especially the Roman Catholics, new annually receive from the State Treasury.

Many bills were introduced in the Assembly to-day, luding one to extend the New-York and Oswego Mided Railroad, one to facilitate the construction of the Lake Ontario Shore Railroad, one to amend the charter of the railroad from Prooklyn to Jamaica, and one to amend the Bailroad act. There were also charters for two savings banks, the Musical Instrument Savings and Lean Security, and the German Mutual Savings Bank, at he New York City. Mr. frying offered a bill to product tolks or lifehways in Kings and Queens Counties. Another gas company bill was offered by Mr. Denis Burne. The first section fortides gas companies, under centility of a foreitare of their charter, charging back has for gas consumed, upon new occupants, or refusing to provide rats to new occupants until bills against previous occupants are paid. The second section limits are charge for sas to $2.50 per 1,000 feet when more than 1,000 feet per mount is consumed. The third section entates depositors to seven per cent interest on all moneys et as security for payment of bills.

The Committee on Privileges and Elections have held was meetings on the Twombly-Carey contested election case. The object of the majority appeared to be to get this case out of the way as soon as possible. The Hon. Fromas E. Stewart, counsel for Mr. Twombly, is absent in Washington. Mr. Twombly only received notice of the first meeting of the Committee on Saturday night, and was obliged to leave for Alkany at 10 a.m. on Money. amend the Railroad act. There were also charters for Inomas in Security of the Committee on Saturday night, and was obliged to leave for Abany at to a. m. on Monday. It was, therefore, impossible for him to apply at the County Clerk's office for certain necessary papers. The Committee now refuse to give Mr. Twombly power to obtain time evidence, and yet profess their anxiety to bring the matter to a speedy conclusion. Mr. Fields, both hast night and this morning, took advantage of his position, as counsel for Mr. Carey, to throw out with loud expections an immons volume of heated air. Nothing was said which touched upon the merits of the case, and the Committee adjourned until to-morrow.

OLYMPIC THEATER-PANTOMIME. The shining river of mirth flows on in sunshine, at the Olympic Theater, between banks that resound with the happy laughter of the populace. Mr. Fox's Closen, in the pantomime of 'Wee Wille Winkie," remains, as heretefore, the central object of pleased attention, and the inspiring source of genuine merriment. The vitality of this personation is really mar-velous. Custom does not stale it, and it never grows old. A very venerable truth is apparent in this result. The appreciative spectator of art will always admire what the artist takes delight in creating. Mr. Fox is happy in his vocation, and therefore he makes his auditors happy. in a mood of congenial enjoyment, giving care to the winds. Such an entertainment as this actor affords—sursounded by glittering accessories, and animated by an innocent spirit of fun-is a prolific source of good to the community. Our civilization has many needs; but we do not recall one of them more stremous and imper-ative than that of the softening influence of mirth. It is the felicity of Mr. Fox to wield and diffuse that influence, and we feel a sincere satisfaction in commending his pantonime, and his excellent and unrivated personation of its Clown, to the particular and continual atten-tion of the play-going public. A distinct novelty is in preparation at the Olympic, to be brought forward at the close of the pantomime season. No immediate change, however, need be anticipated. Matinée to-day.

NEW-YORK CIRCUS. Mr. William Dutton's equestrian exploits invite and reward attention, just now, at the New-York Circus. "Cinderella" still keeps its place in the bright and merry ring, while a variety of thats are performed by a variety of performers—male and female, adult and juvenile. For actual novelties and marvels it were searcely fair to look, in this line of amusement. Mr. Lent has, in the past half dozen years, well nigh exhausted the resources of the circus world, in this respect. Season after season be has presented us with the best catures of the kind that careful search and liberal expenditure of money could secure; and his Circus to-day is the best in the country-well supplied with first-class acrobats, gymnasts, and clowns, and with a very fine stud of herses and ponies. No one who enjoys Circus exhibitions can fail to find genuine pleasure in this

NIBLO'S GARDEN-SPECTACLE. "The Black Crook" continues to draw full houses at Niblo's Garden. There can be no question that it is a gorgeous scenie spectacle, whatever may be thought of its bearing upon the moral sense of the community.

This clement of scenic magnificence would serve to render it attractive, even without the more potent auxiliar element of feminine beauty that it is charged withal. New features are added to the spectacle, from time to time, and a novelty-of a kindred character, but of a much loftier order-is in preparation, we understand, to suceced it whenever change of bill shall seem to be necessary. Important additions to the spectacle will be made next Monday evening.

The story is current in London that Browning's "Sordeilo" is to be translated into intelligible English. The task can only be accomplished by desiroying the spirit of the original.

An ingenuous young woman, having heard that Mr. Jefferson had made a fortune by playing Eip Van Wickie, wondered, when she saw him in the character, why he didn't wear better clothes.

In "Black-Eyed Susan," as lately performed in Little Rock, the heroine appeared in cow-hide boots, chewing tobacco, and very drunk. The legitimate drama must needs be highly spleed for Arkansas.

Mr. McKean Buchanan presented himself before the Richmond public, on the 9th inst., in the character of Cardinal Richelia. Lively allusion to the fact is made, as follows, in The Richmond State Journal: "We never saw such fussiness and grotesqueness in an actor before, as was exhibited by Richeliae has inght. All dignity was sacrificed, and we had a mere driveling old Pantalon, making mouths, mumbling to himself, winking clownishly, and spasmodeally stamping about the stage—while the words he uttered were so mouthed that all the effect of Eniwer's line dialogue was lost. Richeliae will play itself in judicious hands, even with the mere roading, but we were denied the pleasure—it was so mouthed, so hadly delivered, and out to pieces or destroyed by repetitions." The same account says that Mr. Euchanan, "was called out and asked for a speech. He made it, and that speech finished the work he had so well begun in the play. After thanking the andlence for their presence and the appreciation they had shown for the legitimate drama, as represented by himself and company, he proceeded to advertise his whole bill for the week, much after the manner of a showman in a country town. We thought the house would have exploited with suppressed langther when the actor gravely informed the public that to-morrow evening he would appear in 'Hamlet, the Prince of Jen' mark,' and 'on Saturday afternoon,' he continued, 'there will be a matinee, on which occasion a play called 'Loudon Assurance,' considered one of the meet amasing in the language, will be played. Price of admission forty cents—children and servants half price.'" Mr. McKean Buchanan presented himself

This event has been a sudden shock to both families, and the absolute concealment of his marriage from all his friends for many years, while his wife and children openly bore his name in public hotels in this city, is as unaccountable to them as it will be to others. The young man was for several years an internal revenue officer in this city, but for some years past has been employed in a think city, but for some years past has been employed in this city, but for some years past has been employed in of his wife and children, while receiving a salary of only $2,000; and has yet maintained his bachelor life with lavish expenditure. #### THE TRIAL OF DR. LANAHAN.

THE BOOK COMMITTEE AND BISHOPS IN EXECU-TIVE SESSION-AN ADJOURNMENT PROBABLE. The Book Committee did not resume the investigation of the charges against Dr. Lamahan yesterday, but remained in Executive session throughout the day, in connection with the Board of Bishops. This action grew out of the resolutions offered at the preceding session by Gen. Moore, recommending the arrest of the proceedings at that point, and a refer ence of the charges against Dr. Lauahan to the General Conference of the Methodist Church, which meets in 1872. The propriety of postponing the investigation was dis-cussed, and a special committee was appointed to consult with the attorneys on both sides in the hope of reaching an amicable settlement of the case if they can. After progress, and a brief consultation was had with Mr. progress, and a brief consultation was had with Mr. Fancher and Gen. Ramyon, counsel for the proseution, and Judge Reynolds and the Rev. Mr. Buckley in behalf of the respondent. This consultation was without result, the prosecution being unwilling to make any concessions and the defense consenting to no compromise by which the Assistant Agent would not be reinstated in office. The subject was resumed in the atternoon in the absence of counsel, and a material modification of the bill of charges was suggested, so as to exclude all specifications, which do not concern the official management of Dr. Lamahan.

Up to the close of the session no definite basis of settlement nor plan of action had been decided upon, but the peculiar difficulties experienced by the joint tribunal in the absence of precedents and rules of organization, and the absolute certainty of a final appeal to the General Conference in case of a decision in favor of either party, render it probable that the investigation will be postponed. The Committee will neet in Executive session this morning at 9½ o'clock.

EXORBITANT EXPENDITURES OF THE PUBLIC FUNDS.

At the meeting of the Kings County Supervisors, yesterday afternoon, Supervisor Kallmeyer moved to repair the Surrogate's office at a cost of $2,984. Supervisor Johnson opposed the resolution, on the ground that of the $25,000 appropriated in the budget for Court-House affairs, $20,000 had been already expended and that the salaries of officers would consume an additional $5,400. He argued that should these expenditures be continued as at present, an additional appropriation would soon be asked for. His motion to lay the resolu tion on the table was carried by a vote of 16 to 11. Su-pervisor Johnson then offered the following statement: The average fax of 2.86 per cent just levied, and the comments of the Mayor in his late message, are startling indications that the day of reckoning is not far distant, if this stream of increasing taxes is continued. Taking the actual disbursements of our County Treasurer during the last five months—say from Aug. 1, 1870, to Dec. 21, 1870, inclusive—over and above all receipts, we have balances as follows:
